

The screenshot shows the AOL Mail web interface. At the top, there's a navigation bar with the AOL logo, user name 'lucyinstructor', and 'Sign Out' link. Below this are 'Check Email' and 'Compose' buttons, a search bar for the web powered by Google, and links for 'Themes', 'Settings', and 'Help'. The main area is divided into three columns. The left column is a sidebar with 'Today on AOL' and a list of folders: 'Inbox' (with 3 new messages), 'Drafts', 'Sent', 'IMs', 'Spam', 'Recently Deleted', 'Contacts', 'Calendar', 'My Folders', and 'Saved Mail'. The middle column is an email list with columns for 'From', 'Subject', and 'Date'. The selected email is from 'AOLFreeMail@email.aol.com' with the subject 'Welcome to your new AOL Mail a...' dated '1 Nov'. The right column is a 'Stationery' panel titled 'Choose stationery for your email' with a dropdown menu set to 'Animals'. It shows three stationery options: 'Clear' (with a goldfish), 'Ground Hog' (with a groundhog), and 'Honey' (with a bee). At the bottom of the interface, there are links for 'Basic Version', 'Accessible Version', and 'Help', along with the copyright notice '© 2010 AOL Inc. All Rights Reserved'.
